

News of the Week.

On Thursday the American pilgrims in Rome were presented with medals especially struck by command of the pope, to commemorate their pilgrimage. The pope deputized Signor Rossi to accompany the pilgrims on their visit to the temples and other monuments of ancient Rome.

On Thursday, the Senate confirmed the nomination of J. C. Bancroft Davis, to be minister to Germany.

Governor Dix has vetoed the act to simplify and abridge practice and pleadings and proceedings in the courts of the state.

At Salt Lake City, the police arrested a soldier for disorderly conduct. General Morrow demanded that the soldier be tried by the military authorities, which being refused, he took the prisoner by force. This action was in accordance with the directions of the Secretary of War.

Numerous bands in the Basque provinces have revolted and demanded peace. Don Carlos has ordered them to be shot. The bread riots in India were directed against the exporters of food. The government has forwarded troops and relieved 200,000 persons.

In the House on Saturday, the conference report on the currency bill was presented, and after debate was rejected, 108 to 146. The report was ordered sent to a new conference committee, and a new committee was appointed. The sundry civil appropriation bill was taken up, and an item of $50,000 for printing agricultural reports was inserted; also $1,344,207 for completion of the New York post-office.

Snow fell in Michigan, Saturday. Prof. Patton has arranged the Chicago Presbytery for the acquittal of Prof. Swing, on charges of irregularities in the proceedings, hurrying to a decision before important testimony was taken, a manifestation of prejudice in the case, mistake and injustice in the decision.

The Wyoming County Court has imposed about $500 fines on violators of the excise laws, and revoked half a dozen licenses. The American Catholic pilgrims propose to organize pilgrimages to Rome from America at stated periods. The House committee on Territories has agreed to report a bill defining the qualifications of territorial delegates, excluding persons guilty of bigamy or polygamy. The convention of delegates from the overworked parish along the Mississippi, have appointed a committee to visit Washington, and recommend that the money appropriated to relieve the sufferers, be used in employing them to rebuild the levees.

The Apache chief, Cochise, is dead. The entire democratic state ticket was elected in Oregon, at the late election.

Particulars of the death of Judge Doollittle have been received by his family in Utica. Dr. Kitchen, one of his companions on the steamer, writes that on the evening of May 22, Judge Doollittle came aboard the steamer, left his room, and was never seen again. He followed him a moment later they could find no trace of him. Two passengers sitting near the stern of the vessel said they saw him in the water for an instant. The supposition is that he lost his balance while leaning on the railing and fell into the sea.

The Senate committee on appropriations has agreed to report back the House bill appropriating $500,000 for the relief of sufferers by the Mississippi overflow, without amendment. The joint committee on levees will recommend an appropriation of $2,000,000 for repair of the Mississippi levees.

For the two weeks past 52 male and 12 female convicts were discharged from the Auburn prison, under the new commutation law. Rev. Joseph A. Canfield of Antwerp succeeds Rev. G. T. Kaye as chaplain of the prison.

Interviews with New York merchants represent the trade of the city in several important branches as seriously retrograding. In the dry goods line, one house that formerly sold fifty millions per annum, now sells twenty millions. Ten of the largest houses in the city have lost at least fifty-five millions in the aggregate by the falling off of trade; the boot and shoe business is also retrograding, and ship-building is almost entirely gone. A large portion of the loss of commerce is attributable to inferior railroad and warehouse facilities.

The constitutional bill was introduced in the French Assembly, Monday, and vote of urgency carried, 345 to 341.

A mob of 5,000 Chinamen attacked the French quarter of Hong Kong, but were driven off by the French and English police, and four of them killed.

If Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is half as valuable as people say it is, no family should be without it. Certainly no person, be he lawyer, doctor, minister or of any other profession, should start on a journey without it. No sailor, fisherman or woodsman should be without it. In fact, it is needed wherever there is an ache, sprain, cut, bruise, cough or cold.

Farmers and "horse-men" are continually inquiring what we know of the utility of Sheridan's Cavity Condition Powders, and in reply, we would say through the columns of the Independent that we have heard from hundreds who have used them with gratifying results; that is also our experience.

"WE And Our NEIGHBORS" is the latest and raciest work by Harriet Beecher Stowe, Author of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," "The Minister's Wooing," "My Wife and I," and other powerful stories, each the literary gem of its period; and this story promises a like genuine and wholesome sensation. It bears directly on social topics of interest, embracing the romance of youthful companionships, the brightness of happy home-life, the spicy complications of neighborhood associations, and such follies and profound domestic miseries as have led to the widespread Temperance movement of the day.

Mrs. Stowe is now in the prime of that genius which wrote "Uncle Tom's Cabin," ripened by years of study and observation. Her novels are immensely popular, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" alone out-selling by hundreds of thousands any edition of any original work ever published—save the Bible. Her book two years ago, "My Wife and I," out-sold every contemporary. Such a pure and ennobling story as "We and Our Neighbors" should be read in every home. This new Serial is now running exclusively in the
